

24 Oct
II. DISSEMINATION TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS¹

The policy and procedures for the release of classified defense information to foreign governments is established by the Presidential Directive of 23 September 1958, "Basic Policy Governing the Release of Classified Defense Information to Foreign Governments," as revised 23 April 1960.

- Documents* documents even though they have been released
a. Classified intelligence shall not be released to a foreign government without prior permission of the originator.

However, an originating agency may, prior to the general distribution of an intelligence document, determine whether the intelligence document or the information contained therein is releasable to foreign governments. The originating agency may, by the use of appropriate markings, signify that foreign release is not permitted or that advance consent for release is granted. Documents not bearing any control markings may be used in furnished intelligence and disseminated to foreign governments per H 3. The absence of these markings does not mean that the document may be released to a foreign government without the permission of the originator.

NOT RELEASABLE TO FOREIGN NATIONALS - CONTROLLED

This marking shall be utilized whenever an originating agency makes the predetermination that the document and the information contained

1

For the purposes of this directive, foreign governments shall include foreign nationals and immigrant aliens, including U. S. employed, utilized or integrated foreign nationals and immigrant aliens.

~~in an intelligence document~~ may not be disseminated in any form to foreign governments.

The originating agency may abbreviate this marking to "NOFORN - CONTROLLED."

Document: The document shall not be disseminated to foreign governments.

Use : The information shall not be disseminated in any form to foreign governments. The control marking must carry over on all documents and publications in which the information may be incorporated.

c. NOT RELEASABLE TO FOREIGN NATIONALS - EXCEPT INFORMATION TO

This marking may be utilized in those instances wherein the document may not be released to a foreign government; however, the information, if included in a finished intelligence document, may be disseminated to foreign governments as the producer of the finished intelligence deems appropriate and necessary. Such advance consent for the release of the information is subject to those determinations required by the Presidential directive governing the release of classified defense information to foreign governments.

CONFIDENTIAL

The originating agency may abbreviate this marking to

"NOFORN - EXCEPT INFORMATION TO."

Document: The document shall not be disseminated to foreign governments.

Use : The information, when combined with other information, may be incorporated in a finished intelligence document without carrying over the control marking and disseminated to ^{the specified} foreign governments as the producer of the finished intelligence deems appropriate and necessary.

d. RELEASABLE TO _____

The above marking shall be utilized whenever an originating agency has made a predetermination that a classified intelligence document may be released only to a certain foreign government or governments, for example, [REDACTED]

25X1C

25X1C

[REDACTED] Such advance consent for the release of the document is subject to those determinations required by the Presidential directive governing the release of classified defense information to foreign governments.

Document: The document may be disseminated only to the specified foreign government or governments.

Use : The information may be disseminated to the foreign government or governments specified.

CONFIDENTIAL

Insert as Paragraph No. 3

24 ock

3. Finished Intelligence

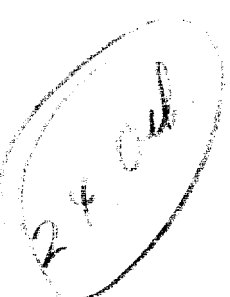

use of intelligence information

In order to facilitate the production and dissemination of finished intelligence with a minimum of administrative delays, the intelligence components of the USIB give advance consent that intelligence information not bearing control markings may be incorporated within a finished intelligence document and disseminated as the producer of the finished intelligence deems appropriate and necessary, which may include release to foreign governments. The information, however, must be paraphrased and used in a manner which effectively conceals the originating agency, the source, the place acquired, the manner of acquisition and, if disclosed to a foreign government, any reference to documents upon which the publication was based.¹

¹ Any reference hereinafter in this directive concerning the incorporation of intelligence information in finished intelligence denotes this manner of use.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. I. b. CONTROLLED DISSEM

 This marking shall be utilized where source protection, including the proprietary interests of commercial sources, would warrant limiting the dissemination of the document. This marking may also be applied for dissemination control purposes to assist in identifying that intelligence material which by category or classification is by USIB approved policy and other directives prohibited from dissemination to contractors.

Document: The dissemination of the document shall be limited to civilian employees and active duty military personnel within the intelligence components of the USIB member agencies, and to those senior officials of the member agencies who must act upon the information. IT SHALL NOT BE RELEASED TO CONTRACTORS. It shall not be disseminated to organizations or personnel, including consultants, under a contractual relationship to the U. S. Government without the written permission of the originator.

Use : The information ~~when combined with other information~~ may be used in a classified finished intelligence

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

document without carrying over the control marking, provided the information is paraphrased and is used in a manner which effectively conceals the originating agency, the source, the place acquired,
and the manner of acquisition.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~